

MEDIA ALERT

For Immediate Release

October 11, 2013

The Towns of Shandaken and Hardenburgh NY Rising Community Planning Committee to Host Public Meeting on October 19, 2013 for the NY Rising Community Reconstruction Program.

New York – Community members of the Towns of Shandaken and Hardenburgh are encouraged to attend a public meeting on October 19, 2013 to learn about the State-sponsored New York Rising Community Reconstruction Program.

When: Saturday, October 19, 2013, 1:00pm – 3:00pm

Where: Belleayre Resort, 181 Galli Curci Road, Highmount, NY 12441

Who: Towns of Shandaken and Hardenburgh NY Rising Community Planning Committee, NY Rising Community Reconstruction Program

Contact: Governor's Office of Storm Recovery, info@stormrecovery.ny.gov

The New York Rising Community Reconstruction Program is one of several Storm Recovery Initiatives and was established to provide additional rebuilding and revitalization assistance to Communities severely damaged by Superstorm Sandy, Hurricane Irene and Tropical Storm Lee. The State has established the New York Rising Community Reconstruction Program to facilitate community redevelopment and resiliency planning. For additional information, please visit <http://stormrecovery.ny.gov/community-reconstruction-program>

###

The Governor's Office of Storm Recovery's mission is to coordinate and implement the State's programs for Superstorm Sandy, Hurricane Irene and Tropical Storm Lee, including housing, small business, transportation, coastal and inland infrastructure, and local community planning programs. More information about Storm Recovery and its programs is available online at <http://stormrecovery.ny.gov/>.